

Auditions for Upcoming Show— Laughing Stock

Open Auditions for SPAC'S fall production, "Laughing Stock" by Charles Morley will be held at SPAC July 26 and 27 from 6:30PM to 9:00PM at the Dunlap Theatre, 315 Yreka St. in Yreka. This show goes up Sept. 24, 25 with a matinee on Sept. 26, and closes the weekend of Oct. 1 & 2, 2010.

Directed by Linda Neal, "Laughing Stock" is a great romp through a "season" of summer theatre.

Anyone who has ever loved being in or seeing a play will be rolling in the aisles during this hysterical farce. The show takes us on the journey of New England Summer Stock from the first whisperings of what's going on the bill, through auditions, rehearsals and closing night with wit, style, and an undeniable love and affection for community theatre.

There are parts for 9 men and 5 women ranging in ages 20 to 80.

Our normal schedule includes three rehearsals a week until dress rehearsal week.

If you can't make the scheduled audition, contact Linda Neal at (530) 926-5062 to arrange an earlier date and time.

Siskiyou Performing Arts Center (SPAC)

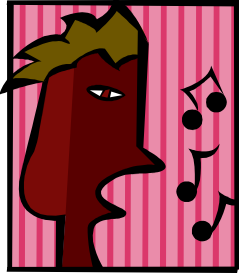

July 2010

Siskiyou Performing Arts Center
P O Box 407
Yreka, CA 96097
www.siskiyouspac.org

Tel: 530.842.5442

Singing for Broadway

SPAC proudly presents "Singing for Broadway"-- 7 sensational sessions in July taught by J. J. Lewis-

Nichols with Valerie Eastman on keyboard. Whether you take 1 or all 7, this is an opportunity to learn professional techniques in breathing, phrasing, emotional connection to your material, how to audition, 'the belt', 'the ballad', and much more. Each session is from 7-9:15 pm and is open for ages 8 years through adult at $10 per session.

Singing is a great release both emotionally and physically and is a joyful experience whether you sing as an ensemble or solo. We will supply sheet music, and you can bring your own, no CDs or tapes. Whether you're a beginner or a seasoned pro this is your time to practice your favorites and learn new aspects of yourself, as well as effectively overcoming nerves auditioning for your school, SPAC, college, or professionally with no microphones—just you, the accompanist, and your unique instrument. All sessions are at SPAC's Dunlap Theatre: Tuesday July 6; Thursday July 8; Monday July 12; Wednesday July 14; Friday July 16; Monday July 19, and Wednesday July 21—all from 7-9:15 pm.

For more information,
call J.J. at 468-5329

KAN Camp in Full Swing

The KIDS' ACTING NETWORK is in full swing due to the support of SPAC and the National Endowment for the Arts.

We are having a wonderful time working on improvisation, writing, dance, music, and backstage production skills. This is such a great group of students. Their enthusiasm is contagious.

Community Theatre is alive and well and thriving in Siskiyou County.

The ensemble for KAN include:

Justin Stevens, Aaron West, Robert Robertson Burwell, Josie Austin, Autum Austin, Ruben Jamie, Valerie Rodriguez, Mickey Schneider, Ashley Cooney, Parker Flickinger, Shelby Joling, Hannah Heffel, Jessica Seal, James Miller, Indigo Bolstridge, Lotus Wolfe, Lauren Gott, Samantha Steyart, Logan Ramshaw, Angelica Polkowitz, Serena Polkowitz, Atticus Kramer, Olivia Winkelhausen, Leah Dean, Alyssa Watson, Mayra Kwasniskow, Haley Brown, Elizabeth Sutter and Adrian Ogden.

Staff for the KAN camp include:

Directors - Marah Winslow and Linda Neal

Assistant Director- Susannah Rea-Downing

The KAN students have had workshops with the following local theatre personnel:

Dance - Sandra Winslow -Will Cooper

Music - Therese Condit - Paul Janke

Video - John Cumming

Set Design - Sharon Swingle

Set Painting - Mary Carpelan

Costumes - Bee Soule'

All students and staff will receive a KAN t-shirt.

T-Shirt Design Set up was done by John Cumming and Linda Neal. The printing was done by Shannon & Brian Petersen.

Lunches for the final three weeks of camp are catered by Lacey Williams.

Our two performances are July 23, and 24, at SPAC at 7:00PM.

The performances are free to the public.

The Box Office will open at 6:30 PM.

We'll be making DVDs of the performances and airing them on

Siskiyou County's Public Access Channels, in Yreka Channel 4 and on MCTV 15 in southern Siskiyou County.

If you miss the show and want to purchase a copy of the DVD, contact us via e-mail at siskiyouspac@gmail.org.

July 2010

Siskiyou Performing Arts Center
P O Box 407
Yreka, CA 96097

Contact us:
Phone: 530.842.5442
Website:
www.siskiyouspac.org